HOUSE FOR RENT

The Monroe Community Church Parsonage house in the village is now available for rent. Monthly rent is $850 + utilities, and interested parties should contact Heidi at Lyman Realty, 747-2796, or e-mail hilyman@together.net.

Have you heard? Monroe residents Jeff and Paula Geil are hard at work as partners in the newly-established Schilling Beer Company, located in nearby Littleton! Schilling is located in the old grist mill on Saranac Street, right on the river. Here is some additional info on their new venture:

Schilling Beer Co. is where innovative brewing science meets continental European traditions in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Our ales and lagers are inspired by centuries-old continental European brewing traditions and beer styles, but are defined by their modern relevance and creativity. Our raw materials are of the highest quality.

Central European beer styles, such as Bavarian Helles, Dunkles, and Hefeweizen, as well as other German and Czech-style lagers and ales will be mainstays at Schilling. These will be brewed with continental malted barley and other grains, as well as hops from Germany's Hallertau region and local hop growers to produce authentic beers. Our Belgian-style line-up will employ both traditional and creative production methods to create complex and unique offerings.

Our taproom will also feature premium local hard ciders, select regional wines, and hand-made, wood-fired pizzas topped with fresh local ingredients.

Sounds good to us. Especially if you've ever tasted Paula's pizza. Schilling is due to open this fall, and you can keep up with their progress on Twitter (@SchillingBeer), on Facebook at facebook.com/schilling.beer, or, when they are ready, at schillingbeer.com. Or just call the Geils!

(There is one remaining Big Trash Day on 9/21.) If you need help dropping off an item, or if it is something that should not be exposed to the elements (i.e., furniture), please call Winston at 638-2331.
